what was the total sales for Broncos by country

CARA 13:19:03
The total sales for the Ford Bronco Sport by country are as follows:

- United States: 124,701
- Canada: 18,924
- Europe: not available (null)
- Australia: not available (null)
- South Africa: not available (null)
- Mexico: not available (null)

Since we don't have sales data for all countries, the total sales for Bronco Sport in the available regions (United States and Canada) is:

124,701 (US) + 18,924 (Canada) = 143,625

Thus, the total sales for the Bronco Sport in the known markets is 143,625.

CARA AI

moves beyond search

Enabling content to be understood, organised, and used as a strategic asset. Designed to address a fundamental enterprise challenge: efficiently managing the growing volume of unstructured data and documentation.

AI that understands your industry

Unlike traditional approaches that rely on basic keyword matching, CARA AI understands context. It delivers faster, more accurate content retrieval, while automatically classifying, structuring, and linking documents.

It also extracts critical information and generates insights that support both decision-making and compliance.

Real-World Impact Across Industries

CARA AI delivers more than automation, it unlocks strategic value from enterprise content by turning unstructured information into actionable insight. Here's how:

Finding the Right Info, Fast

Searching through countless documents, CARA's AI understands context, not just keywords, ensuring faster and more accurate document retrieval across sectors like legal, finance, and government.

Simplifying Compliance

With CARA, every document stays traceable, organised, and up to date with changing regulations. No digging. No second-guessing. Just peace of mind.

Automating Tedious Tasks

Sorting, tagging, classifying, it all adds up. CARA takes the manual work off your plate, automating tasks that used to take hours.

Built-In Traceability and Alignment

Compliance demands visibility. CARA AI ensures documents are traceable, auditable, and aligned with regulatory or internal requirements, critical for industries like Government, Energy, and Financial Services.

Turning Documents into Insights

CARA goes beyond just finding documents, it helps spot key insights, like identifying risks in financial reports or trends in government permits, enabling smarter, faster decision-making.

There's a better way, and it starts with CARA
