

Interact with CARA from other applications

The rich set of end user and backend functionality provided in the CARA application is available through our own RESTful Web Services application

Context Services

- Get list of repositories
- Login into a repository
- Logout from a repository
- Validate user credentials

Object

- Get object dump
- Get object relations
- Get object versions

SnapList

- Get SnapList

Tasks

- Complete a task
- Complete a task with audit information
- Issue a workflow for an object
- Issue a workflow for an object with audit
- Start activityGet Activity type

Config Web Services

- Get specific dictionary
- Get dictionary list
- Get form config
- Get mobile settings
- Get view by name
- Get views

Search

- Search using View's Quick Search attributes
- Quick search for documents
- Quick search for folders
- Set object as search result ID

Tools

- Execute Documentum API
- Execute CARA Script
- Execute DQL
- Execute DQL and get the result

Content

- Get content
- Upload content

Operations

- New Document

Filter

- Get Filters